PROFILE

Alastair has been involved in the wristwatch and antiques industry for over 20 years as an auctioneer and valuer. He has a particularly broad knowledge with interests and passions to include the following specialities; militaria, watches, automobilia, rock and pop, posters, comic books, and musical instruments.

Over the years watches have become as much pieces of jewellery and a celebration of mechanical art, as well as timepieces, as wristwatches specialist Alastair has had the pleasure of valuing some of the world's great collections, including Patek Philippe, Audemars Piguet, Voutilainen, Rolex, and many other great marques'.

MEMBERSHIP

Alastair is a qualified, professional member of the National Association of Valuers and Auctioneers and was elected a Fellow of The Royal Society of Arts in 2017.

ABOUT

In his spare time Alastair likes nothing more than enjoying a lovely meal with a nice bottle of red with family and friends. He has, in the past attempted to be a racing driver, however these days he's happy watching a race from the comfort of his own seat.

SPOT-LIGHT

Alastair's favourite part of valuations is hearing the stories behind the item.
